

Contents

1 What's it all about? Finding Meaning

Destination

- To identify the seasons of life
- To recognize that we have questions about meaning in our lives throughout our lifetime
- To evaluate our ideas about the ultimate purposes for Christian life
- To plan for, and eventually seek, a God-pleasing balance in the autumn of life that gives opportunity for sharing our “harvest”: love and concern for others, wisdom, the example of a life in which the priorities are guided by Biblical descriptions of Christian living
- Three Encounters Along the Way
 - First – Seasons of Life: Jean’s Story
 - Second – The Quest for Meaning
 - According to the Experts*
 - A Role Model - Lillian Carter*
 - Third – My Commitment

2 After the Chase: Am I Ready?

Destination

- To discuss the differences between summer and autumn of life with respect to work, living together or alone, life in the church, and having time for reflection, reading and prayer in a Sabbath environment
- To consider ways of preparing for the changes in the autumn of life
- To evaluate the role of retirement in American culture
- To assess our own priorities for the autumn of life
- Three Encounters Along the Way
 - First – During the Chase (Summer)
 - Second – After the Chase (Autumn)
 - We’ve Changed in 100 Years!*
 - Third – Autumn: Twenty-eight Years and Counting

3 Plentiful Harvest or Scarcity?

Destination

- To understand the concepts of accumulated advantage and accumulated disadvantage
- To evaluate how our choices are influenced by our desire to have financial security and to maintain our lifestyle
- To encourage one another in developing a plan for sharing God’s gifts in autumn of life
- Three Encounters Along the Way
 - First – Jean’s Confession
 - Second – Finances: Plentiful Harvest or Scarcity?
 - Accumulated Advantages or Disadvantages*
 - Dreams or Nightmares?*
 - Third – Generous and Thankful Hearts at Any Age
 - Sacrificial Giving*
 - “I did it all by myself.” “Oh, really??”*
 - Generosity and Spiritual Maturity*

4 Change and Loss

Destination

- To explore continuing change throughout life
- To reflect on loss from personal experience
- To recognize change and loss in a story of endurance, frustration and love
- To consider how the Christian community can help
- Three Encounters Along the Way
 - First – You Can't Avoid It
 - Second – Is There No Escape?
 - Third – Emotional Journey in the Faith Community

5 Why Suffering? Why Loss?

Destination

- To discuss loss and suffering from a theological perspective and from personal experience
- To consider ways to respond to suffering and to those who are suffering
- Two Encounters Along the Way
 - First – A Questioning Christian Asks
 - Second – What Can I Say?

6 Wisdom: Sharing Across Generations

Destination

- To understand the development of wisdom in life, especially wisdom from God
- To look at how to cultivate it, how to acquire it, how to expect it, discerning the limitations of experience, reflecting on experiences
- To consider the types of discussion and planning across generations that are needed for those in autumn of life
- To explore what people in autumn of life can share with those in spring, summer and winter
- To discuss the role of Christian community in sharing wisdom between autumn and the other seasons of life
- Four Encounters Along the Way
 - First – Sharing Wisdom between Autumn and Spring
 - Second – Sharing Wisdom between Autumn and Summer
 - Third – Sharing Wisdom between Autumn and Winter
 - Fourth – What Wisdom Will YOU Share?